20 violation of this chapter shall be deposited in the veterans
21 trust fund created in section 35A.13.

22 Sec. 7. REPEAL. Chapter 546B, Code 2018, is repealed.

23 EXPLANATION

24 The inclusion of this explanation does not constitute agreement with 25 the explanation's substance by the members of the general assembly.

26 This bill concerns the providing of certain veterans' 27 benefits services and the conducting of events related to 28 veterans' benefits.

29 The bill repeals current Code chapter 546B regarding 30 veterans' benefits assistance and disclosures and provides for 31 new provisions governing the providing of certain veterans'
32 benefits. Current law requires the provision of certain 33 disclosures if a person advertises or provides veterans'
34 benefit services and requires the department of veterans
35 affairs to develop a written disclosure statement for purposes

1 of the current Code chapter. In addition, current law provides 2 a maximum $1,000 civil penalty per violation and further 3 provides that any penalties recovered would be deposited in the 4 veterans trust fund.

5 New Code section 546B.1 provides definitions governing the 6 new Code chapter. Terms defined include compensation, person, 7 trade or commerce, veteran, and veterans' benefit matter.
8 Specifically, the bill defines a veterans' benefit matter as 9 any activity related to a claim affecting a person regarding 10 any application for certain veterans' benefits for veterans and 11 their dependents and survivors.

12 New Code section 546B.2 provides for the disclosures
13 required for any person advertising or promoting any event,
14 presentation, seminar, workshop, or other public gathering
15 regarding veterans' benefits or entitlements. The new Code
16 section specifies the form of the disclosure which generally
17 provides that the event is not sponsored by a governmental 18 agency for veterans or by any officially recognized 19 organization of veterans. The new Code section requires the 20 disclosure be disseminated, both orally and in writing, at 21 the beginning of an event related to veterans' benefits and 22 entitlements. The new Code section also specifies certain 23 face and font requirements for a written disclosure. The new 24 Code section also provides that the disclosure is not required 25 if permission from a governmental agency for veterans or by 26 any officially recognized organization of veterans to use the 27 agency's or organization's name for the event has been provided 28 or if the event is part of an accredited continuing legal 29 education course.

30 New Code section 546B.3 describes those acts that would 31 constitute a violation of the new Code chapter. Specifically, 32 a violation occurs if a person receives compensation for 33 advising or assisting another person with a veterans' benefit 34 matter or for referring a person to a person accredited by the 35 United States department of veterans affairs, uses financial

1 or other personal information gathered in order to prepare 2 documents for, or represent the interests of, another in 3 a veterans' benefit matter, guarantees a certain level of 4 benefits, or fails to provide the disclosures required by the 5 new Code chapter.

6 New Code section 546B.4 provides that the new Code chapter 7 does not apply to government employees or volunteers acting in 8 their official capacity.

9 New Code section 546B.5 provides that a violation of this new 10 Code chapter is a violation of Code section 714.16, subsection
11 2, paragraph "a", an unfair practice related to consumer 12 frauds. Code section 714.16 provides for the ability of the 13 attorney general to obtain injunctive relief related to the 14 unfair practice and the ability to recover a civil penalty 15 of up to $40,000 per violation. The new Code section also 16 provides that any civil penalty recovered for a violation of 17 the new Code chapter shall be deposited in the veterans trust 18 fund.
